

SHAYONA

PRESIDENT SCIENCE COLLEGE

College is the platform for overall development of the students along with studies , student's growth also depends upon social interactions and developing their collective work. Similarly Semester three students of President Science College organized an Orientation activity specially for the students of semester one batch 2022 .The event throughout went successful . The programme was started by cheerful greetings , Headed by welcome speech by Principal ma'am, the programme was engaged by various activities for faculties and students and ended with Garba the folk dance.

Organizing Team- B.Sc. Sem -3 students